

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY

Shri Sant Tukaram Shikshan Prasarak Mandal's Arts, Commerce and B.B.A College has Established in 2007 at Vadgaon Maval. In our College Two faculties as Arts and Commerce. In these two faculties there are various department among them it there is Department of Sociology. The Sociology Department has established in 2008 from 2008 various professors are running the Sociology Department now a days Asst. Prof. Wadurkar Gajanan Omkar is a head of Department of Sociology. Sociology of syllabus is multi-dimensional and involves the study of everything related to human and social issues. Department of Sociology has run various programme and activates. Programme such as; village socio-economic survey, S.P.P.U. visit, Company visit, Essay writing competition, poster presentation, Social awareness programme, visits of various exhibition, visited Non-government organization etc. Sociology department promoting research importance and guidance of students to participate of various types of Seminars, Guest Lectures. ICT facility is used in offline and online lecture, PPT lecture for student. In contemporary situations sociology department informed new opportunities are available in sociology. Today's young generation is motivated to become good and capable citizens through the sociology. The Department of sociology strives for the overall development of the students.

